

Ara Industry Scholarships

Ara has a proud history of producing work-ready graduates.

Understanding the needs of your workforce, and connecting our students with your business, helps ensure that when students graduate they're well prepared for work.

If you'd like to partner with Ara to develop and upskill your employees or future workforce, or to invest in the future of a student, we encourage you to consider offering a scholarship in your name.

Sounds great, what do I need to do?

- 1 Select the criteria from the table below (then we'll develop and promote the scholarship)
- 2 Work with us to select the scholarship/award winners
- 3 Attend an Ara scholarship event to present your scholarship to the recipient
