

Academic Staff Member
Radio Production

Position: Full time, tenured
Contract/Grade: Academic Staff Member

INTRODUCTION

Christchurch Polytechnic Institute of Technology (CPIT), the largest South Island Polytechnic and one of Canterbury's three major tertiary institutions, is located in the centre of Christchurch city with an additional campus in Opawa. Emphasis is on "applied" learning where theoretical education is combined with a hands-on approach. CPIT prides itself on the emphasis it places on excellence - such as the increasing number of teaching awards it attracts and its achievement of high levels of recognition in educational audits - and on the many diverse and dynamic partnerships it has with industry, the community and a wide range of interest groups in the city.

CPIT welcomes approximately 25,000 student enrolments each year including both full and part-time, domestic and international, professional, paraprofessional and trades focussed. Students and staff of a myriad nationalities attend throughout the year during the day, evening or weekend. Te Wānaka o Ōtautahi provides a place of belonging for those wanting to engage in te ao Māori or Fale Pasifika.

Over 1500 staff teach and support learning in vocational programmes and courses across a comprehensive range of career and subject areas at varying levels from foundation to degrees, graduate diplomas, diplomas and certificates to short term modules and courses customised for business, industry or special interest clients.

A challenging and exciting education environment demanding responsiveness to the diverse needs of students, employers and our region makes CPIT a dynamic and engaging place in which to work.

FACULTY AND SCHOOL

The Faculty of Creative Industries will be operational from January 2009 bringing together existing CPIT schools and disciplines including architecture, art, broadcasting, (including the New Zealand School of Broadcasting), circo arts, design, fashion, jazz and NASDA (the National Academy of Singing and Dramatic Arts). The Performing Arts School was established in May 2008.

The New Zealand Broadcasting School (NZBS) is part of the Faculty of Creative Industries and has an enviable reputation as a quality provider of media education and training. The NZBS has a purpose built broadcasting teaching facility with significant resources. It has fully equipped radio broadcasting studios and a purpose built television and video production facility.

The school is heavily involved in:

- The teaching of courses in the degree of Bachelor of Broadcasting Communications in radio and television production and broadcast journalism.
- Continuing education of broadcasting professionals.
- The development of further courses in new media.
- The Diploma in Digital Video Post-Production.

ORGANISATION STRUCTURE

PRIME FUNCTION/PURPOSE OF THE JOB

The primary function for this member of staff is to tutor the first year radio students in the basic craft skills required for radio production.

This requires taking the students in hand from day one and bringing them up to professional standard in all aspects of radio production. The students will be required to pass various competency tests and written assignments.

The tutor will also be expected to provide supervision to appropriate level 7 projects in the second semester.

The tutor is required to work closely with the second year radio tutor and the radio technician to maintain quality delivery of the radio stream of the degree. This team is responsible for the development of programme content that is relevant, current and challenging. The team is also responsible for the selection of students each year.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

1. Student Evaluation

Each lecturer is required to implement a system of obtaining from students, evaluation on the course in general and on their performance to assist professional development. Assistance is available in the School or through the Staff Development Coordinator.

2. Staff Appraisal

CPIT has in place a staff appraisal process in relation to job performance. All staff are required to take part in the process.

3. Staff Training and Professional Development

Academic staff who do not have a teaching qualification are required to enrol in the Certificate of Adult Teaching. CPIT is a learning organisation where professional development is supported. Staff are asked to develop a professional development plan with their Manager.

4. CPIT Profile

For CPIT to develop and prosper, all staff are expected to demonstrate a range of skills, knowledge and attitudes that contribute positively to the organisation's fundamental purpose which is to provide quality learning for students. We have an integrated approach to defining, describing and developing a positive learning culture among staff and we align this approach at all levels to the mission, values, goals and strategic direction of the institution.

5. Health and Safety

Applicants for positions are asked to declare and relevant health related needs or issues on the Confidential Information form provided to Human Resources with your application for appointment. This information is not used for short listing but we do expect you to discuss your needs as part of the interview process or when accepting an employment offer where this is relevant. Confidentiality is assured and applicants will not be differentiated on the basis of disabilities or health requirements unless these render applicants unable to undertake the task requirements. Employees may be required to undertake a health check where baseline data is needed for specific positions e.g. a hearing test for those involved in engineering workshops.

6. Probationary Period

Every lecturer appointed for the first time to a tenured (permanent) position must serve a probationary period of two years, which may be reduced in certain circumstances or extended for up to a further year. People appointed to limited tenure (fixed term) positions may be required to serve a probationary period. Confirmation of appointment at the end of the probationary period is by the decision of the Chief Executive Officer communicated in writing.

7. Intellectual Property

Intellectual property developed by Employees in the course of their employment belongs to CPIT. This includes but is not limited to programme/course/lesson plans, course descriptors, notes, assignments, tests, evaluations.

8. Employment Terms and Conditions

Appointment is within the terms of the employment law and for the first 30 days of employment CPIT is legally required to employ staff on the terms and conditions of the Academic Staff in Tertiary Education Collective Agreement (ASTE). At CPIT we also have another collective employment agreement which covers the terms and conditions of employment for academic staff members. If the staff member joins a union (ASTE or ATTI), the terms of that union's collective agreement applies in accordance with the legislation current at the time of joining. If the staff member does not join a union, s/he remains on an individual employment agreement and we can mutually agree the terms and conditions.

9. Equal Opportunities Employer

CPIT is committed to equality and diversity and makes a determined effort to develop an inclusive environment to achieve a balanced gender representation and increase the number of Maori and other under represented groups on staff. We are an active provider of opportunities for differently abled people and recognise that all staff, are not only our employees, but have multi faceted lives that from time to time may require flexibility from CPIT to assist in meeting their other commitments.
