

Kia ora and welcome

Starz restaurant offers Timaru diners a unique and memorable experience. We are an establishment committed to the highest standards of quality service, while participating in the training of future chefs, hotel managers, and restaurant staff.

Our restaurant offers both casual and formal dining, with an array of tempting menus, showcasing the best in student catering.

Students in our cookery and hospitality programmes are required to work in the restaurant as part of their training assessment. All service is closely monitored by professional staff.

Our opening times vary according to the needs of our assessments, so don't miss out. Book ahead of time for a dining experience with the industry's up and coming talent.
