Beginner Te Reo and Tikanga TREQ201

Build on your existing skills by learning correct grammar and syntax so you can create well-formed sentences appropriate to the context or situation. A special feature of this course is its live-in Wānanga, which are designed to let you experience Te Reo and Tikanga Māori in authentic settings like Marae, so you 'live' the protocols rather than just learn about them.

- 2 hours per week for 10 weeks (evenings), plus three weekend Wānanga
- Suitable for groups of 15 or more we can create a bespoke experience at times other than the standard scheduled occurrences
- $150 per person including Wānanga catering and transport to a Marae
- Participants receive a certificate upon completion
- Available in Christchurch, Timaru and Ashburton

With our organisation learning Te Reo Māori, we are working to protect a national taonga (treasure) and we show our willingness as a government body to take steps to enhance partnerships with Tangata Whenua.
