Please answer the following questions giving as much information as you can.

Why would you like to become a social worker?

2

1

Social work is focused on dealing with the unfair, unjust, and discriminatory treatment of people. What is you understanding of this?

3

Being a social worker requires self-awareness and resilience. Also, the social work programme can be busy and challenging as people learn more about themselves and complete academic assessments. Please write about a time when you had to deal with a stressful situation and how you managed it.

The programme includes a focus on	Te Reo, the Treaty	/ of Waitangi, and the	e effects of colonisation	on Maori.
What are your views on this?

5

Can you write about a situation where your beliefs have been challenged, particularly in relation to culture (e.g. race, religion, gender? How did you respond to this experience?

6

The programme requires both in-class, and out-of-class work each week. Tell us about any other commitments that you may have to work around (e.g. childcare, other paid/unpaid work). How will manage these commitments and your deadlines/ responsibilities to your study?

7

Group-based learning is a significant part of the programme. You will be required to work with other students both in- and out-of-class to achieve the learning outcomes. tell us about an experience of working with people you have not got along with, or have found challenging. How did you manage this situation?
